NHS National Services Scotland

SPRUN Education Day

Friday 4th December 2026

10.00 am to 4.45 pm

Steele Lecture Theatre, Perth Royal Infirmary

PROGRAMME

10:00	Welcome	Dr Deepa Athavale
10:00 – 11:30	Strategic Needs Assessment Session – group discussion	Mhairi Gallacher, Programme Manager, SPRUN Karyn Ropbertson, Senior Programme Manager, PSDS
11:30 – 12:00	Hospital at Home H@H – New way forward for renal patients?	Dr Andrew Macdonald, Consultant Paediatrician, Royal Hospital for Children, Glasgow (Online –via Microsoft teams)
12:00 – 12:45	Antenatal counselling for potential or detected foetal renal disease	Dr Malcolm Lewis, Consultant Paediatric Nephrologist, Royal Hospital for Children, Glasgow
12:45 – 13:45	Lunch
13:45 – 14:30	CAKUT – with a focus on follow-up imaging in antenatal hydronephrosis	Dr Kate Thomas, Consultant Radiologist with interest in paediatrics, Victoria Hospital, Kirkaldy
14:30 – 14:45	CKD condition resources – patient information	Georges, Medical Student, University of Glasgow
14:45 – 15:00	Renal outcome in cardiac transplant patients	Kate McFarlane, Medical Student, University of Glasgow
15:00 – 15:30	HNF1B Mutations – Phenotypes of patients in Scotland. An update.	Dr Rachael Harley
15:30 – 15:45	Coffee Break
15:45 – 16:15	Title TBC – subject – "Mabs"	Angela Lamb, Renal Pharmacist, Royal Hospital for Children, Glasgow
16:15 – 16:45	Challenging clinical dilemmas Case presentations	Dr Rithwik Khandelwal, FY2, Renal Unit, Royal Hospital for Children, Glasgow Various